Foreign markets also showed an easier tendency, and price of beets declined from 12s 8d, on Sept 18th, to 11s, 71/2d on Sept 27th. During this time, however, the statistical position of the world's supplies have been improving, but have not yet reached the point where they can control other influences.

The quiet feeling, as noted above, has since been followed by an improvement in the demand for raws, and slightly higher prices have followed.

In consequence of the strong position of supplies holders have remained firm, and are unwilling to sell except at full prices. Muscovadoes have sold on the basic of 4 13-13c for 50° test, and Centrifu-gals at 5 7-16 for 50° test. The procedures of the distribution

PARTY DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF Death of Hon. J. M. Kapena.

Hom John M. Kapena died Saturday at 11:30 p. m. The funeral took place yes-terday. Deceased having been a member of Hawaiian Lodge of Masons, members of the craft were invited to attend a meeting of Hawaiian Lodge at 2 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of attending the funeral.

The late Mr. Kapena was a member of the Privy Council of State. He had also been a member of the House of Nobles for many years, until that body became elective under the new Constitution. Mr. Kapena has been Minister of Foreign Affairs and Min-ister of Finance, the latter in the Gibson Cabinet that held office throughout the legislative session of 1884 and the first part of that of 1886. Of good intellect and refined address, he was able in his time to present his views fluently and forcibly to the Legislature in both languages. Indeed, he was one of the ablest men of part Hawaiian birth the country has known, and had he taken care of himself would certainly have made his mark. On retiring from the Min-istry last year, Mr. Kapena was given the position of Collector-General of Castoms but only held it a few months. He has died in what should be the prime of life, but in reality for the past year or more he was a prematurely aged man. Mrs. Kapena died within two years past,
